Consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses before investing in a state 529 college savings plan. Carefully read the Disclosure Booklet available on each state’s site, or call us at 888-381-8283.

Investments in a state 529 Plan are neither insured nor guaranteed and there is a risk of investment loss.

Investment products may be subject to market and other risk factors. See the applicable product literature, or visit TIAA.org for details. If a fund’s investment strategy uses social criteria, it can exclude securities of certain issuers for non-financial reasons and may forgo some opportunities available to funds that do not use such criteria.

Investment, insurance, and annuity products are not FDIC insured, are not bank guaranteed, are not deposits, are not insured by any federal government agency, are not a condition to any banking service or activity, and may lose value.

The TIAA group of companies does not give tax or legal advice. These webinars provide general information that you should discuss with your personal tax and legal advisors to determine how it may apply to your individual circumstances.

529 college savings plans are offered and administered by states. TIAA-CREF Tuition Financing, Inc. is a program manager for many states’ plans. TIAA-CREF Individual & Institutional Services, LLC, member FINRA is distributor and underwriter for the plans managed by TIAA-CREF Tuition Financing, Inc.
